"Editor Whitaker is at Hot Springs" hence:

Over here in Hot Springs, a stranger is treated as an asset. He has "foreign" money to spend, and the natives want him to have a good time, so that he will not only come back, but will tell his friends about what a fine place Hot Springs is. Courteous and decent treatment of strangers is the best and cheapest advertisement that a town can have.

It is a great pity that Grenada muffed the ball with thousands of men of the 87th by permitting a FEW to gyp and gyp these men.

Grenada now has the men of the 94th Division and it is within Grenada's honor to make boosters or knockers of these men "guests."

How much better it would be to have the boys of the 94th say of Grenada, "Yes, I was there during the war. It is a small town", than to have them say, "Yes, I was in Grenada, I was held up and my wife was held up at every turn."

It seems that the leaders, if we have any, should cooperate with the authorities and see that those soldier boys and their wives are not held up as if with a pistol.

I saw a good-looking blond here the other day, but she is not as good-looking as either of my favorite blonds in Grenada.

Max Yeager reports seeing Uncle Charley Montgomery here Monday.

Brother Spurgeon Cook has returned to Grenada.

If anyone goes by the GCW, please stop in and give my love to that sweet old lady of mine.

Knocking on wood and crossing my fingers, I can say that SO FAR the poker players have paid my expenses here.

What happened to Cynthia's column last week? Has Adams gone again?

Dear Coyboy: you ought to come over here.

Speaking of blonds, Betty Grable in "Sweet Rosy O'Grady," is a sight for sore eyes.

Mr. and Mrs. Hill of the Enox Hotel are fine hosts and most thoughtful and considerate of their guests. H. H. Sims, Henry Marter, Max Yeager and I will always boost for them, for they treated us right. But what of those two girls in Grenada who told Mabel they were charged $5.00 to stay all night? Will they boost Grenada or knock Grenada? The answer is obvious.

Dear Ed Underwood: remind me to tell you the tale of the jackass and the cactus.

Good luck to the 87th and welcome the 94th.

In last week's GCW I saw where Bet Horn had a fire. Fortunately there were not TWO at the SAME time. Some day there will be TWO. What then? If the city continues to permit the erection of shacks in the fire district, all of Grenada is likely to burn down some day, and, in the meantime, insurance rates are going up on ALL of us.

Was talking to a young fellow who had a 3-room apartment with gas, electricity and water, near a school, a block from the bus line, near 4 churches and close to a movie. He paid the enormous sum of $40 a MONTH plus one-half the utilities (approximately $3 a month). I imagine he would pay about six bits a month in normal times. Such a set-up, if one was available in Grenada, would bring $75-$100.

You can write your own ticket here, as you can in all resort towns, from $30.00 a day at the best suite in the Arlington to $1.25 a week for a 2-room cabin.

I do not get off Central Avenue for I did not bring my compass with me.

I hope my overseer, Mr. Terrell, does not throw away any money while I am away.

I forgot. I saw one good looker here—Heddy Lamar—but she was dressed in a celloloid film. They must grow them for utility here.

I went around to the newspaper office the other day and got some ink on my nose.

Mr. John George Died Monday, Nov. 22

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at All Saints Episcopal Church for Mr. John George, life long resident of Grenada, who died at Grenada Hospital Monday at 5:45 p. m. November 22, 1943.

Interment was in the George family lot in Odd Fellows cemetery. Rev. C. S. Lilles, rector, officiated. He was 59 years old.

The deceased was the son of Mr. John George and Mrs. Sally Sherman George, both pioneer families of Grenada, both of whom preceded him in death many years ago. A sister, Mrs. Frank Jones, and a brother, Mr. Albert George have both died in recent years. He was not married.

Pallbearers were Messrs. John Pressgrove, Keene Huffington, Charlie Goodwin, Harry Greenfield, Jim Weed and Ward Alexander.

John George lived a quiet, unpretentious life. His friends in his home town were many and if John had an enemy, it was himself. He has owned considerable property in the city, and altho had sold part, still owned two store buildings in the business district of town.

His nearest kin is his aunt, Mrs. Eugene Weyneth, of Grenada, with whom he made his home part of the time. His last home was at Mrs. Clark's boarding hotel where he had a room. A cousin, Mrs. Will Weisler, resides in St. Louis. To these relatives and to Mr. Weyneth, we express our sincere sympathy.

Ole Miss War Dead Honored In Student Service

International Student Day was observed Wednesday at the University of Mississippi with a service commemorating the alumni and former students who have given their lives in the service of their country.

Principal speaker at the exercises, which were attended by both civilian and soldier students, was Chaplain Milton O. Beebe, chief of Chaplains Section, Second Army Headquarters, Memphis.

Maralyn Howell, president of the Associated Student Body, explained that International Students Day is an annual observance, held on the anniversary of the day in 1939 when 160 Czechoslovakian students at the University of Prague were massacred by order of the Gestopa.

The honor roll, bearing the names of Ole Miss men who are know to have died in service, was read by J. K. Hamm, alumni secretary and chairman of the committee on compiling a university service roll, and the audience stood in silence for two minutes in commemoration of these men. Two Grenada men were listed: Robert Philip Campbell, Grenada, and Lt. Robert H. Horn, Grenada.

Just For Fun

Lt. Bob Marquette, away at school, has been carrying on a correspondence with Dorothy McC, of Grenada. She explains that it is all about his bank account.

Many of the 87th wives are leaving town, some of them are following their husbands into Tennessee, or wherever they are going, some are going home. We have no record of any so far remaining in Grenada.

Don't know whether it is to stay or to buy a new wardrobe. Yes,, the favorite blond, Mrs. Barksadie, is leaving the DuBois household.

Mrs. Busch, of the Field Artillery is still here, entertaining her mother at present, and we add, very good looking mother, who has just returned from Hot Springs. Captain Busch's people are also coming this week for a visit.

While we're on the subject of Camp McCain, let's skip over to the Hospital for a minute, and have a look at those newly-uniformed Grey adies. We had a pre-view of the gowns, lovely gray seersucker with white collar and cuffs, and a white fronted cap Tuesday night. The formal receiving and wearing of the cap and gown will be in the hospital this Friday night.

And speaking of Friday, that reminds me that we worked yesterday, Thanksgiving, but had a wonderful turkey dinner at the Officer's Mess at the Air Field, even had two kinds of pie. The new mess officer, Lt. John, is making in the praise. By theway, we saw her at McCain patronizing the Division Club there, but being true to the wings of the Base.

It is still undecided whether the Division Club is to be turned over to the new Division when the 87th leaves or whether they will just save time and give it to the Air Corps.

By the way, where has Mrs. King of the Civilian Personnel Office at the Field been lately? She used to eat a quiet dinner every night at the Star Cafe in town, and she has been absent for hiding for a week.

And Miss Whitehead of the same office is still suffering from a severe cold contracted while week-ending at Ole Miss. However, she was presented a lovely gold pencil, so perhaps it is favorable.

They do not pronounce the nearby river Ouchita like it sounds.

Soon To Complete Course in Combat Flying

Lt. John B. White, Pilot, son

John E. White, of 53 Adams Street, Grenada, will soon complete an intensive course in combat flying at the Alexandria Army Air Base, Alexandria, La., and in the near future he will go overseas to a combat area.

He is the member of a Flying Fortress crew trained by the Second Army Air Force, which has the task of readying all four-engine bomber crews for overseas duty.

Lt. White graduated from Grenada High School.

Miss Lida Coffman Died Last Friday

After an illness of two months, several weeks of which were spent in Grenada Hospital, Miss Lida Coffman died at the hospital late in the afternoon of Friday, November 19, 1943.

She was the daughter of the late Mrs. Maggie Hughes Coffman and Mr. Charles Coffman, both of whom died in the disastrous 1878 yellow fever epidemic which almost depopulated Grenada. She is the last of her line, her sister, Miss Mary, and her brother, Mr. Hughes Coffman, having died many years ago. The name of Coffman was among the first of the names in Grenada's early history. Her grandfather, Mr. R. Coffman, was a prominent citizen in Grenada's early history.

Miss Lida was an old fashioned gentlewoman, uniformly courteous and kindly to everyone. Few of her kind are left. She attended Grenada College and M. S. C. W.

Funeral services were held at the home of her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Trusty at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon with Rev. C. A. Pharr and Rev. W. L. Robinson of the Methodist Church, of which she was a member. Burial was in Odd Fellows cemetery.

She is survived by the following cousins: Mrs. R. C. Trusty, Misses Mary and Belle Knox, of Grenada; Mrs. George Shelby, of Shelby, Mr. E. W. Hughes, Winnetka, Ill. Mrs. Homer Spragin, Mrs. Townes Evans and J. E. Hughes, of Minter City, Miss Sarah Owin, Dallas, Texas and Harper Hughes of South Pacific Area.

Sympathy is extended to the bereaved ones.

W. D. Tatum Presented Cash Award At Camp

A cash award of $100.00 was presented to Mr. William D. Tatum, Plumber Superintendent, Post Engineers, Camp McCain, Miss., on November 4 1943, for an idea advanced by Mr. Tatum, that has been adopted by the Military Authorities at the Post.

The presentation was made by Colonel Ira E. Ryder, Commanding Officer, Camp McCain, after a brief announcement by Lt. Col. F. L. Ackerson, Post Engineer, who outlined the War Department Employee's Suggestion and Cash Award Program, and introduced Captain Robert T. Sutton, Captain Lawrence E. McCartt, and Mr. A. E. Childs, as members of the Award Committee, to a large group of civilian employees now assigned for duty with the Post Engineers.

The Commanding Officer commended Mr. Tatum for his ingenuity and foresight in making such a worthy contribution toward the war effort, and urged all of the employees at Camp McCain to submit their suggestions for labor and time saving devices and methods to facilitate speed and efficiency.

A fellow just told me that he was the Admiral of the hotel—he looked after the vessels. You may be too young to appreciate this; if so, ask your ma or pa.

Grenada First In State To Use Pencillian Drug

The new drug Pencillin, was used at Grenada Hospital starting October 18, 1943 and continuing until October 21 when administered to 14 year old Margaret Andrews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Andrews, who reside on North Main Street in Grenada. The supply was received through National Research Council after her physician had taken the case up with the War Department, who has jurisdiction over this marvelous drug. Margaret was stricken with acute Osteomylitis in left femur and is responding nicely.

Merits of this drug, as the doctors at Grenada Hospital see it now, cannot be over estimated, in staphylococcal infection. A haven that has long been looked for.

Congratulations To New Publication

"Life at Camp McCain" portrayed in the beautiful first edition reached our desk early Wednesday and words seem to fail us in expressing our admiration.

The front page in grey and red showing the landscape of Post Headquarters. Page after page is filled with pictures of officers, of soldiers at their various clubs and picture show, as well as at work and in the field.

"Life at Camp McCain" whose guiding impetus has been to give to the public a complete picture of the life of its soldiers, is deeply indebted to Major General C. H. White, Commanding General IX Carps; Major General Eugene M. Landrum, Commanding General of the 87th Division; Col Ira E. Ryder Post Commander; Col. Richard Sutherland, 3rd Army Detachment Commander; Col. Charles P. Bixel, A. C. of S. G-2 IX Corps; Major Frederick W. Waite, Post Internal Security Officer and Capt. John F. T. Murray, Acting A. C. of S. G-2, 87th Division for turning over the facilities of their commands, and the help they have given towards this the first official publication of Camp McCain."

Contribute To Crippled Children's Fund

Every year at Thanksgiving time, the schol children of Mississippi and their teachers are asked to make a Thanksgiving offering to "MAKE FIT THE PHYSICALLY UNFIT". The Mississippi Society for Crippled Children looks after crippled children all over the state and makes it possible for many of them to secure treatment in the Crippled Children's Hospital in Memphis. It also provides ways whereby these children may secure training and become physically fit for service and happy living. It is a most worthy organization. School children are asked to contribute one dime each and teachers, twenty-five cents each. Grenada City Schools always responds liberally and gladly.

Companion. They have been turned over to Federal authorities to await the action of federal grand jury.

Mr. Cooley stated that he probably would sell his car to a California agency rather than transport it home.

IT'S one of the tales that people of the entertainment world will be telling years from now—that Abbott and Costello story. Last March, when Costello was stricken with rheumatic fever, and doctors said that he would never walk again, Abbott was urged to get himself a new partner. He refused. He went off the air, stopped all picture work. He and Lou had been partners in pictures and radio for 13 years, he was sure that Lou would recover, and he'd wait. His faith was justified last September, when Lou took 60 steps, one for each year of the birthday anniversary his mother was celebrating. They're back on the air now, start a picture late this month. But Fate again has dealt cruelly with the roly-poly comic, for his infant son, Lou Costello Jr., was drowned in the family swimming pool three hours before his adoring dad went on the air, brushed the tears aside and laughed as loud as he could on a coast-to-coast hookup.

"Youth in Crisis," the latest March of Time release, is going to startle a lot of complacent people. Dramatically, movingly, it tells the story of what is happening to our young people because of the disruptions and excitement of war. Dealing with the same problem, RKO Radio is making "Are These Our Children?" Ruth Clifton, 18-year-old high school girl who originated the famous Moline Plan, has been brought to Hollywood to confer with California officials and to act as technical advisor on the film.

When "Vox Pop" transferred from the sidewalks of Houston, Texas, to those of New York, in 1935, Variety, the theatrical paper, predicted that "This show ought to last indefinitely." Recently Parks Johnson celebrated "Vox Pop's" 12th birthday, so the prediction may come true.

If you haven't formed the habit of listening to those delightful sketches done on the Dinah Shore program by Cornelia Otis Skinner and Roland Young, better do something about it right away. Maurice Murphy's playing a fighting pilot in Paramount's "Submarine Alert," doing all right, but he has one deep regret. As a small child he portrayed the star, John Gilbert, as a child in "Flesh and the Devil," and the leading lady often held him on her lap. The leading lady was Greta Garbo. "And when it happened," says he, "I was too young to appreciate it!"

ODDS AND ENDS—Although Sidney Lanfield has never directed her, he manages to weave a gag around Dorothy Lamour into each of his pictures; the latest is in "Standing Room Early," with Paulette Goddard and Fred MacMurray . . . Hedy Lamarr has been selected as the army magazine Yank's Pin-Up Girl of the Week for the second time . . . Elmo Lincoln, the original "Tarzan," has a role in "The Bridge of San Luis Rey" . . . Amos 'n' Andy have been deluged with fan mail proclaiming their new show to be a success . . . Pat O'Brien has been booked to appear on the air's Radio Theater on November 29th, in "The Iron Major," based on his new picture.

GOOD WORD ON EGGS

If you like eggs—fried, scrambled, or Easter—this may interest you.

The high price of eggs will soon come tumbling down. This Humpty-Dumpty event will be brought about by the sale of five million cases of government eggs.

War Food administration, responding to the prodding of critics, admits that it was putting too many eggs in one basket, for military and lend-lease requirements, at the expense of civilian requirements.

Release of this tremendous quantity of eggs won't alarm the housewife, but worries War Food experts because it might discourage production for next year.

Meantime, War Food and OPA are rowing over the price to be paid for these five million cans of cold storage eggs. WFA officials, protecting the producers, want a higher price for cold storage eggs than fresh eggs.

OPA, thinking of the housewife, says: "This is the first time we ever heard that eggs become more valuable as they get older!"

But War Food stands firm on the principle that the old eggs should bring more money. Their reason is that the old eggs were stored by dealers who were playing the usual seasonal game of holding for a rise in price, without realizing that the government was going to step in and take over at the fixed price.

In other words, War Food experts are trying to hand dealers some of the speculative profit they might have gotten, while OPA—trying to protect the consumer—wants to hold the price down.

COLD WINTER AHEAD

Whatever you burn this winter—oil or coal—it is still going to be cold.

The public has the impression that it is only coal which is short now. Actually, oil is even shorter, rations for this winter being based on a 34 per cent cut below pre-war consumption.

The fuel situation is so bad that OPA experts several months ago recommended coupon rationing of coal. A warm debate followed between OPA and the Solid Fuel Coordinator, in which Ickes, supported by the coal industry, opposed rationing.

But OPA experts believed coal would be short this winter and, during the summer, laid plans for coupon rationing. In August, they were all ready to go to press with millions of coupon books.

Finally, however, the coal co-ordinator vetoed the plan. Now it is too late to impose coupon rationing—partly because there is not sufficient time to print the coupons and give out instructions to local boards; also because some coal is already supposed to be distributed—inequitably—to consumers.

Thus we shall have to rely on "dealer rationing." This does not limit consumption—only strings out the supply in driblets, making a greater delivery task without decreasing consumption.

The public believes that oil is bountiful compared with coal, and OPA is now besieged with applications for reconversion from coal to oil. These applications are being resisted, since the impression of abundance of oil is merely an illusion.

FEWER TIRES FOR ALLIES

One thing not discussed at the Moscow conference was rubber tires. If the question had been raised, Russia would have been told that tires on Lend-Lease will have to be reduced sharply.

Reason is that U. S. trucks and buses are wearing their tires down to the fabric, and Jesse Jones' long ballyhooed synthetic tires are falling behind schedule. There is plenty of new rubber, but a dire lag in tire production.

Meanwhile, bus and truck transportation has never been more vital. Last year inter-city buses carried more passengers than the railroads (680 million compared with 669 million), though they travelled fewer miles.

If they are crippled, the weight would be thrown back on the already struggling railroads. Also, many places would be without transportation, since 54,000 communities have no rail service.

The army, OPA, ODT and the rubber director's office are putting their heads together to find a way out. One solution will be a reduction of tires shipped on Lend-Lease. Russia alone was promised 500,000 this year, in addition to 2,000,000 already delivered

AND SMART, TOO

Jill—Nothing doing. I'm just as sensible as I look!

Right Answer?

Jimmy was in a store with his mother when he was given some candy by one of the clerks.

"What must you say, Jimmy?" asked his mother.

Too Bad

Scrub — Is that player double jointed?

Coach—No, why?

Scrub—Well, then, I must have broken his leg when I tackled him.

Simple Reason!

Sarge—Now I want one of you fellows to explain to me why it's important not to lose your head at any time.

Rookie—Well, you'd have no place to put your helmet!

Wrong Word

Mrs.—I'm afraid our new housemaid is dishonest.

Mr.—My dear, you should never judge by appearances.

Mrs.—I don't. I judge by disappearances!

Ain't It the Truth?

Mrs. Smith—Let me see it.

When armored knights met, it was customary for each knight to raise the visor of his helmet as a means of identification. This gesture has come down through all armies in the form of the salute. Traditional, too, is the Army man's preference for Camel cigarettes. With men in the Army, Navy, Marines, and Coast Guard, actual sales records in their service stores show that Camel is the favorite. It's one of the favorite gifts with service men. Though there are Post Office restrictions on packages to overseas men, you can still send Camels to soldiers in the U. S., and to men in the Navy, Marines, and Coast Guard wherever they are.—Adv.

SNAPPY FACTS ABOUT RUBBER

It was not until almost 300 years after Columbus that first commercial use was made of rubber. Native rubber articles — play balls, bowls, bottles, hats, capes and shoes—were brought to Spain and Portugal from various parts of Central and Northern South America years before the commercial merits of rubber were realized.

A rapidly growing army of more than 500 rubber-growing specialists from the U. S. is now in the Amazon rubber district expediting the collection of crude rubber and conquering the leaf disease that has taken severe toll of the jungle trees.

TRUTHFULNESS AT ALL TIMES

LESSON TEXT—Exodus 20:16; 23:1, 7; Matthew 5:33-37; John 8:42-45.

GOLDEN TEXT—Wherefore putting away lying speak every man truth with his neighbor: for we are members one of another.—Ephesians 4:25.

God hates all kinds of dishonesty—a fact which is emphasized by the additional commandment regarding truthfulness which is before us in this lesson.

God is truth, that is, the very essence of His nature is truth. In Him is no darkness at all (I John 1:5). Lying or false witness therefore reveals a character opposite to God. Hence we are not surprised to find in our lesson that Satan is a liar and the father of lies, and that liars are his children.

I. The Nature of a Lie (Exod. 20:16; 23:1, 7).

The commandment against false witness brings before us one form of lying—for it has to do with perjury, that is, the telling of an untruth in court.

This is one of the worst forms of lying, because it may result in the one against whom it is practiced losing his liberty, his life or his property. It may mean the destruction of his good reputation.

It is obvious, however, that the commandment covers all forms of lying, whether in business, in social contacts, in the home, or in the church. We might do well to consider what the Bible has to say about whisperers, talebearers, backbiters, and others (see Lev. 19:6; II Cor. 12:20). A man's reputation may be as easily ruined by a whispered lie over the back fence or the luncheon table as by formal perjury in the courtroom. "Thou shalt not bear false witness" at any time, anywhere, or in any way.

II. The Practice of Lying (Matt. 5:33-37).

The people of our Lord's day (and who can say that the custom has stopped) were in the habit of telling lies and then trying to make others believe them by an oath.

They would swear by heaven, or the throne of God, or some other sacred thing, and thus try to enforce their false word by some great authority.

The liar is always under necessity of doing something—perhaps telling another lie—to cover his falsehood. When his comfort or advantage seems to be endangered because he is not believed, he brings an oath to bear upon his statement.

Jesus taught the great virtue of simple living and simple speech. A plain "yes" or "no" is usually sufficient for the situation. Qualifying words are apt to lead us astray. The life of a Christian should be so true and above board that no oath should be needed to assure one of his sincerity and honesty.

Since not all are Christians, it is a necessity that men be placed under some kind of oath or affirmation in judicial matters. Hence we need not interpret this Scripture as forbidding an oath in court.

It may be well to say a word about swearing in general. It is all too common among men, women and children. No Christian should ever be guilty of it, or that which sounds like it. We need admonition and correction at that point.

III. The Source of All Lies (John 8:42-45).

The devil is a liar, and the father of lies. Liars are members of his family. Jesus said it, "Ye are of your father the devil."

Liars had better consider their "family tree" and see how they like their spiritual father. He is lustful, murderous, and there is no truth in him (v. 44). If you belong to that family would you not like to change families and be born again into God's family?

Sadly enough the constant lying of the world seems to have infected the minds and hearts of Christians. Instead of being cleansed from this worldly defilement they carry its awful tendencies into the church. Is it not too true that gossip (which is almost always lying), false witness, the tearing down of someone's good name, is all too common in the church?

The great lie within the church, and one of Satan's prize exhibits, is the falsehood of modern religious liberalism (so-called) which is essentially a denial of real New Testament Christianity. Jesus said (v. 42) that if God is our Father we will accept Him as the Christ. The one who speaks sweet words about the example, the manhood, the leadership of the Master and who denies Him His place as God is clearly in mind here as a follower of the father of lies.

Note that in verses 45-47 Jesus challenges His enemies to convict Him of sin or of falsehood. No one has ever been able to meet that challenge.

The claims he made for Himself as the Son of God and the Saviour of the world are plain and unmistakable. If we deny them we either make Jesus a liar, or we lie ourselves, and it is obvious that the latter is the case.

Coastguardsmen's Wives Keep House in Pacific

About New York:

What looks like a palace at Park Ave., and 51st is merely the uppity Racquet and Tennis Clubhouse . . . There is a Park Ave. penthouse that has a garden with a 30-foot waterfall . . . Radio City's studios are built like boxes within boxes, separate rooms within rooms, raised from the building floors by steel springs covered with felt in order to improve acoustics. Imagine going through all that trouble for soap operas . . . The Music Hall Rockettes can live comfortably without ever leaving the theater. They work there, can eat in its restaurants, and have a luxurious dormitory atop the theater to sleep in . . . Talk about tact. At one Park ave. place, the headwaiter never bows to a patron, if he is with a woman not his wife.

Thirty-two years after Columbus discovered America the strip of land now known as Manhattan was discovered by Giovanni da Verrazanno. There isn't even a street named after him . . . What many sightseers think is romantic and picturesque in Chinatown are merely rundown tenements. The city's worst slums are located there . . . Our fighting Mayor LaGuardia has installed a punching bag in one of the City Hall rooms . . . Only six cities in Germany contain more Germans than Yorkville . . . Many of the Oriental herbs sold for high prices in exclusive food shops are grown in Staten Island . . . If you want a whiff of old New York, go to the Murray Hill Hotel.

Ten times as many people visit New York during a year as live in the metropolis . . . As far as earthquakes are concerned, the Big City is the safest part of the world . . . Only 4,000 of the 18,000 Chinese in New York live in Chinatown . . . This gives you an idea how cosmopolitan our burg is: It has three Arabic daily newspapers . . . The Chinese maintain a school for their children in Mott St. . . . The merriest locale in town is the Puerto Rican section of Harlem on Saturday night . . . There are laws regulating the shape of our skyscrapers . . . The opening of the Brooklyn Bridge was celebrated as a national holiday. For twelve years, while the bridge was being built, the chief engineer had lain partially paralyzed. The first lady to drive across it was his wife, who acted as his intermediary.

The Herman Goering award is presented monthly to a member of the American Air Force in England . . . It is given to the Yank who contributes most to the German war effort. It is a large iron cross (12 by 12 inches) worn around the neck . . . The RAF has a similar prize—published each week in its paper—a parody on an official seal.

Recently it was awarded to the crew of a large bomber, returned from a mission . . . It seems they couldn't make their radio work properly on the way home. The gas was almost gone and finally they were forced down in what they thought was Holland.

Upon landing, they immediately set fire to their bomber, stayed with it until it lit up the black night . . . They they ran like anything for what they thought was the nearest house, praying that the tenants were sympathizers.

It was the saloon around the corner from their base!

One of the most important stories of the war (how the surrender of the Italian fleet was achieved by a radio engineer of the Overseas Branch of the OWI) was ignored or buried by most newspapers. Not one of them even mentioned his name. He is Robert Morris Pierce of Cleveland, Ohio, attached to the Army's Psychological Warfare Branch, of which OWI is an important part . . . Here is how it was done . . . When Italy surrendered, a message was prepared for broadcast to the Italian fleet . . . It was doubtful if the fleet would hear it—because the Italian Navy had a strict taboo on listening to our broadcasts . . . Pierce solved the problem by working all night to shift the big transmitter to the international distress signal band to which ships of all nations listen . . . The message was broadcast every 15 minutes for several hours . . . When the Italian fleet steamed into Malta (as a result of the broadcast) Admiral Sir Andrew Brown Cunningham, Allied Naval Force Commander, said: "Tell General McClure they've accomplished in one day with propaganda what I've been trying to do for three years with the Navy."

Groucho Marx told Artur Rubinstein that Southern California was becoming the home of musical greats. Rachmaninoff, Menuhin, Iturbi, Rubinstein, Heifetz, all of whom played at the H'wood Bowl.

The maestro said when the season ended he was in the foyer of the Philharmonic and heard two dowagers discussing music.

"How was the season at the Bowl?" one asked.

"Quite good," was the reply, "considering that we [illegible] but loc[illegible]"

Farewell 87th, Welcome 94th

(Mrs. W. W. W.)

The 87th Division, so soon to leave Camp McCain to go on maneuvers in Tennessee, has been with us now for about a year.

In a sense, the 87th Division was the pioneer of Camp McCain, and as such had to adjust their lives to pioneer conditions. The landscape, the barracks, some of the Service Clubs have been made more comfortable as the months rolled by, and the expression "time is kind to us all," resulting in a better understanding between Grenada and Camp McCain.

The officers and men of the 87th Division have a warm place in the hearts of most Grenadians. We are reminded daily that Camp McCain represents more than a military cantonment—a group of buildings designed to house an army in training.

Camp McCain and the 87th Division represents to us the determination of the English speaking world and her allies, to stabilize peace, at whatever cost. Farewell, and good luck, Soldiers

The 94th Division will arrive at Camp McCain when the 87th leaves. Already we know of the arrival of some officers and men. TO YOU WE SAY WELCOME. Grenada is a small town, and 'though there are some profiteers and shirkers among us, just know that every community has some selfish people. Our churches, our theatres, the USO Centers and our homes are open to you, so to you 94th Division—we say WELCOME.

Pine Hill, Beautiful Home Site

Never let it be said that the only way Grenada can grow is to flat country to the South. We think that the Grenada of the future will have handsome homes built all over te ridges of the hills lying so beautifully to the west of town. Too long now the most beautiful home sites in Grenada have been neglected because of the ruggedness of nature which seems to make them impractical as home sites. We speak, of course of Pine Hill and the hills lying west of town along Highway No. 7.

When the priceless privileges of building is again ours we will have new techniques of construction given us and more beautiful homes as well as cheaper built homes will be ours. Home owners of the next generations will welcome the irregularity of the hillside slopes, using that very feature to shape the style and plan of their homes. They will possibly build their home on several connecting levels, with the plan of constructing additional rooms as needed.

Visualize if you can, the full scope given from the windows of a modern home on Pine Hill to the landscape, spreading out to the north, east and south. Yes, the view from Pine Hill is magnificent.

Soldier On The Loose

He's as brave as a lion,
As strong as an ox,
As fearless as a tiger,
As smart as a fox,
As cute as a teddy bear,
As gentle as a dove,
As wise as a hoot owl
When it comes to love.
But any talk of marriage
Fills him with loathing—
He's strictly a wolf
In Uncle Sam's clothing.

Watch Your Kidneys!

Help Them Cleanse the Blood of Harmful Body Waste

Your kidneys are constantly filtering waste matter from the blood stream. But kidneys sometimes lag in their work—do not act as Nature intended—fail to remove impurities that, if retained, may poison the system and upset the whole body machinery.

Symptoms may be nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—a feeling of nervous anxiety and loss of pep and strength.

Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder are sometimes burning, scanty or too frequent urination.

There should be no doubt that prompt treatment is wiser than neglect. Use Doan's Pills. Doan's have been winning new friends for more than forty years. They have a nation-wide reputation. Are recommended by grateful people the country over. Ask your neighbor!

Thankful, But Humble

PSALM, 24-1

The earth is the LORD'S, and the fullness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein.

PSALM 117-1-2

O praise the LORD, all ye nations: praise Him, all ye people. For His merciful kindness is great toward us: and the truth of the LORD endureth forever. Praise ye the LORD

PSALM 121-1-2

I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help.

My help cometh from the LORD, which made Heaven and Earth.

Yes, we are thankful to GOD for the many, many blessings that we have received, for the many neighbors and friends around us, for the Churches and Public Schools, for the various governments under which we live, City, County, State and Federal, for the freedom of speech, freedom of the press, freedom to worship according to the dictates of our conscience, for the sovereignty of the STATES and we hope and pray the day will never come when any of these will be taken from us.

We are thankful that we can still use the great American custom of GRIPING and BLOWING off steam, yet go right on with our work and be good law abiding citizens. . . .

We are thankful that we can still send elected men to the congress to make our laws and safeguard our precious rights and privileges and it is our earnest hope and prayer that they will be given the strength and courage to stand up and fight for the things that are right and best for us as a nation.

YES, WE ARE HUMBLE

We are humble because we realize our dependence, our weakness, our selfishness, our attitude to look out for me first—

We are humble because we realize that we are as a vapor which fadeth quickly before a puff of wind—

We are humble because we realize that we haven't been getting the best reception from above, because we've had too much static around us and we know we've got to clear the channel.

We are humble because we realize that all good gifts cometh from above and it is only through the goodness and mercy of a loving GOD that we have been abundantly blessed and allowed to live in the best country in the world—"MY COUNTRY 'TIS OF THEE I SING,"—AMERICA. May GOD keep her intact and bless her.

'Forts' Raid Schweinfurt

By Doris Fleeson

I was lucky. By chance I walked right into preparations for one of the greatest bombing missions in history. This was the vast raid on Schweinfurt. I saw our boys take off and I saw them return.

The small world of a bomber base in England is organized with utter precision toward one end—to get those planes off the ground, over the target and home. One mission follows another and everybody knows exactly what to do or is told. Outwardly it is calm, but in the background is always one brutal fact: some of our aircraft do not return. When the planes are out on a dangerous mission, voices get shriller and men appear reluctant to abandon one another's company.

Americans and the RAF share their secret skills but not their way of life. Our base is a piece of America—food, equipment, wise-cracks. Few English faces are seen and these are usually liaison officers.

Everybody knew that the coming raid on Schweinfurt was to be something special, that there were some of the most important targets ever bombed anywhere. The Nazis are aware how vital ball bearings are to the war and the plants that make them had been tucked deep into the mountain folds of Bavaria. The Nazis knew Allied fighter planes could not carry enough gasoline to protect the invading bombers which would have to face Nazi fighter fire for hundreds of miles. But Fortresses have firepower to protect themselves and they have a bombsight to hit any target. Months ago their crews were handed nameless maps of the Schweinfurt targets to study. In English skies they practiced over and over again formations which would doom the factories.

Restricted to Post.

Finally the crews were briefed. But weather forced cancellation. So important was security on this raid, Colonel Harding restricted to the post every man who attended the briefing, gave special orders that they were not to discuss it among themselves and cut off telephones.

Colonel Harding gave the group final instructions. A West Pointer from West Virginia, he has ice-blue eyes, a quiet manner and a fistful of medals. The latest of these is a silver star for gallantry and achievement in leading bombing raids over enemy territory.

"Don't let the boys tell you they aren't scared on raids," Colonel Harding told me. "Nobody could be such a fool as not to be frightened when flak and fighters come at him. I've been scared plenty."

I was assured by the boys that Harding's briefing technique was okay. One thing the boys can't stand, they told me, was what they called "drip." They know what they are fighting for. What they want to be told is why the target is so important, so that if they get hurt they can feel it's worth it.

Maj. John Kidd of Cleveland led the group off the field. Three squadron leaders seconded him. "Sweating it out" is the air force's inelegantly accurate phrase for the business of waiting for the planes to return from a raid. The waiting is undramatic but very wearing.

'Happy to Be Alive.'

Outwardly all went on as before after the bombers roared down the runway at the base. Another mission went out and returned. It was a milk run over Holland. Another was briefed but canceled. After many long hours, the Fortresses came back. The gleam of a major's oak leaf on a red fez perched at a rakish angle over a grinning Irish face was the herald. The wearer of the fez was Major Egan; his simple heartfelt greeting was: "I'm very happy to be alive."

Then from all mouths tumbled out stories of the man-made hell they had been through, beginning hours before the target was reached. All agreed that nothing like it in size, venom and duration was ever before experienced in aerial warfare. All around were fighters, Forts blowing up in flame, and the thunder of guns without end. The Nazis arched strings of blinding new rocket shells.

The Fortresses battled German fighters for 2½ hours—the longest engagement in the history of heavy bombings—but they had gone over their target and got away.

A measure of the raid was the volubility of the crews who made it. Their talk lasted through their days of rest and was still going strong when I left the base. Crews are encouraged to talk, of course, not only to help get it out of their system but to keep intelligence officers full informed. What they say might help in planning the next encounter with Nazis.

Nazis Wreck Northern Italian Ports To Hamper Future Allied Operations; United Nations Formulate Relief Plan; U. S. Issues Current Casualty Figures

(EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysis and not necessarily of this newspaper.)

Released by Western Newspaper Union.

Said Hull: "We agreed upon a broad, basic program of international co-operation. The program contemplates the hastening of victory . . ., the preservation of peace and the promotion of human welfare . . ."

ITALY:
Destroy Ports

Italy's northern ports of Leghorn and Pescara were blocked by Nazi demolition squads to render them useless to the Allies for future operations, or in the event Gen. Dwight Eisenhower attempted landings above Rome to trap elements of five German divisions holding out in the mountainous country to the south.

Principal action in Italy centered on the Fifth army front, where Lieut. Gen. Mark Clark's mixed British and U. S. forces were edging forward at the mountain passes at Mignano, to gain the long, level valley leading to Rome.

Once General Clark's warriors burst through at Mignano, they still will have to buck elaborate Nazi mountain fortresses farther up the valley at Cassino, which stands some 60 miles from Rome. Because Allied troops must clamber up rugged slopes in the face of entrenched enemy machine gunners and mortars, and U. S. artillery must rake whole mountain sides to clear out Nazi posts, progress necessarily is slow.

Fit Italy Into War

To get Italy functioning on the side of the Allies, Gen. Dwight Eisenhower established a control commission headed by Maj. Gen. Kenyon Joyce, formerly of the 9th service command.

Purpose of the commission will be to fit the country's agriculture and industry into Allied war plans, and to regulate Italian governmental administration.

To prevent any political party from establishing its hold over the country through military force, the commission will control Italy's revived fighting services.

Advising the commission will be the U. S., British, Russian and French committee on Mediterranean affairs, and Greece and Jugoslavia will be included later.

WORLD RELIEF:
Allied Plans

Assembling in the east room of the White House, representatives from 44 United Nations signed an agreement for the relief and rehabilitation of Europe, with each country providing supplies to the limit of its capacity.

Herbert Lehman

Of the 48 million tons of food, seed, fuel, clothing, raw materials, machinery and medical supplies that will be needed for European relief during the six months following the war, the U. S. will furnish nearly 9½ million tons, Great Britain 3½ million tons, Europe 29 million tons, and other regions 4 million tons. Congress will appropriate the funds for American participation.

Slated for appointment as director general of the relief and rehabilitation administration was former Governor Herbert Lehman of New York. Purpose of the administration is to tide over distressed people of reconquered areas until they can put their factories and land back into production.

CROPS:
Weather Helps

Profiting from favorable weather, the 1943 corn crop was estimated at 3 billion, 85 million bushels by the department of agriculture on the basis of conditions November 1. This compared with last year's record crop of 3 billion, 175 million bushels.

With October weather good and without widespread frosts, the large acreage of late corn reached maturity in Iowa, Missouri, northwestern Ohio, and parts of Michigan and Indiana. Checking summer drouths, rains perked up late corn in the South Central states. Record yields were in prospect for the Northwest.

Other crop estimates for 1943: Wheat, 835,816,000 bushels; oats, 1,148,692,000; barley, 330,212,000; rye, 33,314,000; flaxseed, 51,486,000; soy beans, 206,017,000; rice, 69,019,000; potatoes, 409,092,000; sugar beets, 7,239,000 tons, and peanuts, 2,681,955,000 pounds—record highs for rice, potatoes and peanuts.

Hogs Crowd Markets

Chicago's sprawling stockyards teemed with over 60,000 live hogs after a high three-day shipment of 128,500 head, which compared with 85,552 for the previous week and 66,418 for the same period of 1942.

As a result, packers paid the "floor" of $13.75 for only the heavier weights out of the 200 to 275 pound range on which the government has pledged price support. Packers obtained many bargains in classes for which no "floor" has been constructed.

So called "floor" prices were high on the flooded market, equalling the lowest tops since last December.

SOUTHWEST PACIFIC:
At Japs' Rear

Pursuing his policy of pinching off Japanese strongholds in the Southwest Pacific by cutting off their communications, Gen. Douglas MacArthur has established U. S. forces to the rear of the enemy's important forward base of Buin on Bougainville island in the Solomons.

With U. S. marines and doughboys standing astride the Japs' communication lines leading to Buin, they were in position to strike against the enemy supplies, and his main body from the rear.

Bougainville is the Japs' last important holding in the Solomons, and apparently they were determined to take advantage of the wild nature of the humid, tropical isle for another long, delaying action.

U. S. CASUALTIES:
Total 120,967

U. S. casualties totaled 120,967 for almost two years of war, with the army reporting 89,648, and the navy 31,317.

Of the army casualties, 12,841 were killed, 30,263 wounded, 23,952 missing and 22,592 prisoners. Since the landing at Salerno, September 9, the U. S. suffered 8,556 casualties in Italy, with 1,295 killed, 4,764 wounded and 2,497 missing.

Of the navy casualties, 12,548 are dead, 5,542 wounded, 8,999 missing, and 4,228 prisoners.

Of the nearly 7,700,000 men in the army, about 2,500,000 men will be serving abroad by the end of the year.

Standing True to Form

The village groceryman—who was also an air-raid warden of long standing—was very proud of the fact that his photograph had been published on the first page of the local newspaper.

While he was showing it to one of his customers, a rather formidable old lady, he detected a certain lack of enthusiasm on her part, and said apologetically: "Of course, it's not a very good photo. I'm out of focus."

"Yes," the old lady replied with a grim smile, "you're always out of something. You were out of string beans Tuesday and out of flour Friday!"

Tractor Engines Should Run at Top Efficiency

With the gasoline situation becoming increasingly serious due to demands for gas for combat uses, farmers are being asked by the War Food administration to cut their use of tractor fuel to a minimum.

While this request may seem extreme to farmers who have had their tractors stranded now and then by dried-up fuel tanks, W. C. Krueger, extension agricultural engineer at Rutgers university, points out that many tractors could be operated on 15 to 25 per cent less fuel through correct carburetor adjustment, lubrication, and proper setting of spark plugs and magneto.

He emphasizes that when it takes 100 to 180 gallons of fuel to plow a 40-acre field, 40 to 80 gallons to disc that field, 60 to 80 to haul a grain drill over it and 30 to 50 gallons to harrow it, a 25 per cent reduction in fuel becomes important.

Krueger offers the following suggestions for improving tractor efficiency:

1. It is a common error to believe that the leaner the mixture the less the fuel used. Too lean a mixture wastes fuel, causes over-heating, invites valve trouble. Best fuel economy results from setting carburetor at a compromise between too lean a mixture for idling and a slightly rich mixture representing maximum power adjustment. This setting can only be determined by trial under load.

2. Magneto timing is often responsible for over-heating and uneconomical operation. Since the method of setting varies with the tractor, follow the instruction book closely.

3. Set spark plug and magneto point gaps to recommended clearance occasionally. Put in new plugs when electrodes become worn.

4. Check valve tappets two or three times a season. Improper clearance ruins more valves than all other causes put together.

5. Never shut off a tractor immediately after running at full load. Valve warping is often caused by not letting the engine idle a short time before stopping so that the valves may cool gradually.

6. Operate the tractor at full load as much of the time as possible. It costs nearly as much to operate a tractor at half load as it does at full load. Maximum draw-bar efficiency occurs when the load is heavy enough to cause wheel slippage in field operations approximately 10 per cent.

Corrugated Siding Is Made Of Felt Composition

A wartime substitute for corrugated sheet steel is a newly developed composite material that may be used in practically all construction where steel was formerly employed. This siding, which is corrugated like steel sheets, is made of two sheets of heavy felt, each saturated with a resino-bituminous compound, and laminated together with a high melting point adhesive. Its light weight is an advantage for farm buildings. Under tests conducted by the Celotex corporation, manufacturers, this product has proved satisfactory in withstanding heat, cold and moisture. The corrugations do not flatten out under effects of weathering.

A non-critical, emergency material, this corrugated siding is available in any quantity now, and can be used for building or remodeling.

Wasps Defeat Moths

Oriental fruit moths, a serious scourge to Michigan peaches, are being combatted effectively by a species of small wasp, called Macrocentrus. These wasps are being released in the orchards at the rate of 50,000 a year. The Michigan State college and the department of agriculture collaborated to find this insect enemy of the moths, and to breed it in large numbers. The fruit moths are a recent pest, having come in about 10 years ago.

Japanese landings in the South Pacific, probably for the purpose of regaining the offensive, were foiled by United States forces. This soundphoto shows U. Early Blizzards Kill 7; Delay Trains

Early blizzards which swept the central west brought about the deaths of seven persons, five of them in Minnesota, where 11 inches of snow was reported in some localities. Track laborers are shown struggling to keep switches open in the Minneapolis railroad yards. Transportation and communication systems were stricken and most trains ran late.

German Sabotage Fails to Halt Allies

German troops destroyed a bridge near Caserta, Italy, to halt the advancing Allies. Their failure is illustrated by these British soldiers who run their jeep into the river and cross without the bridge. In an effort to protect their winter line, the Germans launched a series of furious counter attacks against most portions of the Allied Fifth army.

Sportlight by Grantland Rice

WE ARE now moving into a rather strange, weird and complicated sporting world.

Many of the stronger college football teams of October are only remnants in November.

Star after star, singly and in groups, is heading now for Parris Island, a big marine base, or some other service center.

At the same time the draft is moving in on big league baseball.

Consider the Yankees alone.

Charlie ("King Kong") Keller, their home run hitter, is waiting his 1-A test. Keller is no 4-F. Nor a 2-A.

Joe Gordon, their feature second baseman, has had over 100 hours in the air—and he can't miss.

If Chandler, Keller and Gordon are not fit for service work we must have the super-army of all time. They happen to be three of the finest all-around athletes I've ever known on one ball club.

I happen to know that Bill Dickey, their veteran catcher, a first class flier, too old for any combat flying at 36, would like to get an instructor's flying job.

This same condition must apply to other teams. If the war remains tough or gets tougher, the call on sport will be even louder than it has been so far. And the call has been heavy.

Shifting Tides

Tides are shifting back and forth faster than the human eye can follow.

Is a team to be rated on its September and October form before the blast arrived, or is it to be rated on its November showing down the stretch?

In the past few weeks hundreds of good football players have been called away from teams scattered all over the national terrain.

Army and Navy are able to complete their season without any deficits in material.

We are not yet certain whether there will be further shifts from time to time, extending through December.

This, of course, would throw the various bowl situations into something approaching a tangle, if not a turmoil.

But there are still many rougher things happening in this war.

All-Star Selections

Those attempting to pick All-Star or All-American combinations also find themselves wading into the quicksands.

How many games would a star have to play before he could be properly named?

To help complicate matters, the waning season has been loaded with stars—such backs as Daley, Bertelli, Davis, Hamburg, Steuber, Kane, Odell, Graham, McCardle, Podesto, Dark, Miller, Hirsch, Prokop, Field and others, from Duke, North Carolina, Purdue, Ohio State, Dartmouth, Washington, etc.

There will be no lack of fine material from which to make selections, but some of these who might belong have only played in one or two big games.

At least all this will help to keep the debaters busy when "the ways are heavy with mire and rut."

The Old Grad had been a trifle dazed all season. Events have had him trying to face three or four directions in the same split second.

For example, we have Minnesota rooters pulling hard for Daley, who helped Michigan wreck Minnesota.

Under such conditions you can't very well blame the Old Grad from feeling just a bit curious in the cupola.

For all of these expected and justified handicaps it has been an interesting season and there are still some good games on the docket before the season ends.

About Bob Odell

Bertelli and Miller have been the most valuable pair of the year.

But Bob Odell, younger brother of the Yale coach, is my pick.

But in addition, he is the best, or one of the best, blocking backs in the country and one of the hardest, surest tacklers—one of the best defensive men I've seen.

FOONCE

Words are weak when the heart would speak. In the passing of our dear friend, Walter Koonce, a vacancy has been left in the hearts and lives of those who knew him and he will be sorely missed. But though friend Walter, you are gone from our midst, your good deeds will live on. The encouragement you have given the least fortunate will be remembered. Walter Koonce as of strong mind but tender and sympathetic, a true gentler, kinder soul never lived. He was no ordinary man, he had but one rule, to ascertain the path which was right and follow that path to te end. He was clever, thoughtful and obliging. The door to his home and his heart was ever open to those who knew him. Those who knew him were fortunate in gaining a finer perspective of the finer things of life. He was a good husband and father, friend and neighbor. The world is a better place for you having lived in it. A monument is erected to you in the hearts of those who knew you.

AVIATION CADETS LTARN FLYIN ON THE GROUND

Air superiority begins on the ground and America's growing might in the air is a convincing tribute to the quality of the training received by Aviation Cadets of the U. S. Army Air Forces.

In an interview with The Grenada County Weekly today, The Grenada Army Air Field, Grenada, Miss., enlarged on this point. "More and more young Americans are choosing to do their fighting in the air," he said. "They know that not only will they have the finest—and safest—planes that can be built, but they'll have the finest training that can be devised to equip them for the big task ahead.

"The training is long, arduous, and infinitely detailed. First of all, the candidates are carefully screened. Only those with the sort of physical and mental equipment that flying requires can even start. Each Aviation Cadet is subject to periodic tests, again both mental and physical, throughout his period of training. These are to determine both his continuing fitness for the general training program and to assist in making the best choice in the field of specialized training. The record our flyers are making in this war is the best possible proof of the excellence of the training that is being offered.

"The probability of a career in postwar aviation is not the least of the advantages to be derived from the Army Air Forces training. The young men of today want to fly, and they know that the Air Forces is the best place to learn.

"They get bitten by the flying bug young these days. The Air Corps Enlisted Reserve is now open to a young man as soon as he reaches the age of seventeen. If he passes the necessary tests, if he is not engaged in essential war work or agriculture, he is accepted and will be called up for training the time after his eighteenth birth

This plan has the obvious advantage of permitting him to choose his branch of the Service, to say nothing of giving him the satisfaction of feeling all set and ready to go when the time comes.

"You'll be seeing more and more boys in this town wearing the winged emblem of the Air Corps Enlisted Reserve," Lt. A. Ruderman concluded.

Next Year Will Be Different

NEXT year will be different. Not only the weather, and markets, and the needs of the country. Our jobs will be different, too. Because next year we're going to do those jobs differently—and we hope better!

We, whose job is producing goods and services, have been making resolutions like this for years. And we've been keeping them! For in our kind of business, you either keep on finding better ways of doing things, or—you go backward! And if enough people do that, the thing we call progress bogs down.

That's why farmers keep on trying new seed, and fertilizers, and machines, and strains of stock. That's the reason industry carries on research—another name for a constant search for new knowledge and better ways to do things. Because most of us have been doing this for years, America has had the highest standard of living in the world. And it's the reason, too, that American production is doing so much today to bring victory.

After the war, America is going to need more than ever men with the courage and enterprise to invest time, money, and hard work in the search for better things. And if America's producers understand each other, and each other's problems, we'll be able to do these all-important jobs better. General Electric Co., Schenectady, N. Y.
